Oregon Unknown

ASTOR HOUSE, New York, Oct 1, 1867

EDITOR OREGONIAN

I have now been on this coast four years, during which time I have resided in Washington City, D C, Chicago, Ill, Boston and New York, and spent considerable time and transacted business in nearly every important city in the Northern States and in this way have come in contact with a great many politicians and business men in all of these States and I have been not only surprised but mortified at the prevailing ignorance of the resources and productions of Oregon. On the other hand, California is well known. Everybody can tell you all about her big trees, fine grapes and wines, her peaches, her gold mines and her politicians. No wine store is without its list of California wines, while there are many in all the large cities that sell California wines exclusively and any number of California Cigar Stores may be found with branches in nearly all the leading hotels. Many flour dealers have California flour, and the leading mills have her wheat, while only a very few have either Oregon flour or wheat, and what they do have is invariably marked second best. There is a great abundance of canned fruit in the market from California especially peaches while nothing of the kind is ever heard of as coming from Oregon. My attention on several occasions has been directed to instances where good Oregon wheat had been branded California A No 1 and where a poor quality of California wheat had been branded as Oregon wheat or second best, and the same of flour. Recently a flour manufacturer in Brooklyn told me that he once obtained some Oregon white wheat and as soon as his customers had tried the flour they told him that it was superior to any in the market and he remarked that if he could get a supply of that wheat he would not buy any other kind. Many mills and dealers in this city have California wheat and flour which is eagerly sought after and always finds a ready market, but the best brands of this flour came from Oregon. So of corned beef and dried fruit, also wool. Oregon produces the best wool raised on that coast, and indeed is not inferior to the best raised on this, yet when it is shipped from California, or through her markets, it is always branded as her own production, while inferior California wool is set down as an Oregon production and marked Oregon second best. A few days since, while passing the office of the American Agriculturist, I saw a huge pear exposed to view in the show window, and stepping inside was informed by one of the editors of that journal that it weighed three pounds and seven ounces, and was raised in California, but not believing his story, I made further inquiry and found that the pear was raised in Oregon, and was sent here and credited to California. Last spring an immense beet, weighing forty seven pounds, was exposed to view in the Tribune office, and was, as usual, called a California beet; but I was certain that it had been grown on Oregon soil. And the same is true of some of the products exposed in the Agricultural Bureau at Washington. Even our public men are frequently called Californians. Several of the best speeches of Senator Williams in the Senate last winter went the rounds of the Eastern press as speeches from Senator Williams of California.

There is the same prevalent idea that we have poor society—half civilized people—and schools in a primitive state. And in order to test this thoroughly, I attended the National Teachers' Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., in August, 1865, where nineteen of the Atlantic States were represented by their brightest educational lights, including their Superintendents of Public Instruction and Presidents and Professors of colleges and universities, numbering over eleven hundred in all, and being ineligible for membership under the constitution of the Association, I found that money had more force than an article in its constitution, and once in, I found no difficulty in creating quite a sensation by the announcement that Oregon was not behind any State in the Union in her educational system and facilities. They were so eager to hear these novel statements that I was several times called upon to address the Convention and was rewarded with office, and they seemed really astonished and delighted to have a person in their association fresh from the mountains, deserts and wild Indian tribes of Oregon, who could speak the English language so as to be understood by the Professors of Ancient languages, and smiles like a white man. When Bishop Scott died he was reported from Milwaukie, Oregon, while Bishop Kipp of California is called Bishop of the Pacific, as though there was but one diocese.

The gold and silver exports of Oregon, and indeed all the northwest, are put down to the credit of California by the time they reach here. And this is the case even where the statistical reports give the proper credits, because it all comes through California dealers, and men get their ideas and conviction in regard to these things mostly from those with whom they deal.

To remedy all this Oregon and the whole northwest, should trade directly with the great Eastern money capitals. She should send her products, such as wheat, flour, wool hides, salmon, gold and silver etc direct to this city to be sold by regular Oregon dealers, and in this way realize the highest market prices and save her most juicy profits which are at present absorbed by the California merchants. Her merchants should purchase their goods directly from these great Eastern houses and manufacturers, and in so doing they would always save at least the difference between gold and currency, because goods can be purchased in this city and delivered at Portland for the same price in currency that the Oregon merchants pay in gold for the same kinds of goods in San Francisco and in many instances goods may be had on far better terms. A depot should be established in this city to which all Oregon products should be shipped and sold as Oregon products, and all goods for Oregon merchants should be purchased for them by parties representing Oregon interests. There is already an opportunity of this kind offered by Capt J M Keeler formerly Provost Marshal of Oregon. He has established himself in this city as an Oregon commission merchant, and the energy and sound judgment joined with his zeal and unequaled facilities, commend him to all Oregon producers and merchants. He is fully prepared to receive any kind of produce or articles that may be shipped from Oregon and will dispose of it promptly at the highest price. And having formed business connections with the best houses here he is enabled to fill orders for goods of all kinds at the very lowest rates. He is a pioneer in this business for Oregon and she will not be alive to her own interests if she does not liberally patronize him. All merchants desiring supplies of goods should send to him their orders and all persons desiring to buy pianos carriages books pictures or anything should send to him. His office is at No 95 Liberty street.

There is another thing that Oregon does not seem to take hold of as earnestly as her interests really demand—and that is railroad communication directly with the East. A road from Portland to Sacramento is necessary and should be built as soon as possible. But a much more important road should be built connecting the Columbia basin with the Union Pacific road at Salt Lake and by this route have an independent and direct communication with the East. With only a road to Sacramento Cal, Oregon and all the Northwest would forever play second fiddle to California—pay a tribute that she could illy afford. There is already a company being formed in this city and Boston and one in Iowa for the purpose of building a road from Salt Lake to the Columbia river provided they can get a proper charter from Congress, and Oregon should unite with these interests and assist in getting such a project established on a firm basis.

Yours truly,
H. CUMMINS

PETER LORILLARD. Peter Lorillard the millionaire tobacconist died at Saratoga, October 7th, in the 72d year of his age. Lorillard succeeded his father in a well-established tobacco business in New York about fifty years ago and after many years of strict frugality and untiring industry in the manufacture and sale of tobacco, became the richest person in the trade in the United States. Long before the many dealers who now are now familiar as leaders in the business had become known in commercial circles, he had accumulated a fortune, which enabled him to rule the market. The business and house which his children inherit are 100 years of age.

Branch Mint

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The OREGONIAN of the 21st inst contains a communication from the Hon Mr Henderson, to which I claim the indulgence of a brief reply.

In my former letter I undertook to show that Mr H, in endeavoring to account to his constituents for the failure of the Branch Mint established by the Act of 1864, committed some errors of fact in relation to the manner of its location, and also grave errors of conclusion in insisting that I with others am responsible for its having thus far proven a failure. I will not repeat the argument of that letter, but confine myself to his criticisms upon that argument. And in passing I will say that Mr H's affirmation of his intention to make what he terms his "own defense" in his first letter, connected with the dislocation in his last, "that when he fired that shot he expected the birds would flutter," has a smack of inconsistency which cannot be heightened by any comments of mine. That he meant to defend himself by assailing others, is so clear that he should have spared himself the disguise of any declaration to the contrary. And here I will add, that if he can succeed in convincing any one but himself that the delegation in the 38th Congress went before the committee of Ways and Means to discuss a bill purposely kept out of its hands, he will accomplish it upon such slender capital of facts that argument in refutation would be wasted. That delegation were more economical of their labor than to be guilty of any such folly, and while my assertion that my colleagues were not upon that committee at the time referred to, may be called "reckless" the fault can easily be settled by an appeal to these gentlemen.

But after making his point on the statement attributed to Mr Hooper, Mr. Henderson says "that it is of but little consequence." If it was so trifling a circumstance, why did my friend make it an issue? It is a small matter to allege that which has no existence in truth? Mr H makes it important till the statement is refuted, and then astonishes his readers and consoles himself by saying it is of but "little consequence!"

He then says that the material point is that we (myself and colleagues) did ask for the location at the Dalles. On that I have made no issue with him. I have shown why we asked it and proved that it was done by an agreement with the Delegates from Washington and Idaho. To meet this "material" point, Mr H tells us that the Delegates from those Territories in the Thirty-Ninth Congress were in favor of the removal. Admit it, and does that prove that Cole and Wallace were not in favor of the Dalles two years before? What the Delegates in the 39th favored I know not, but I do know that both were instructed by the legislative assemblies of their respective Territories in favor of the Dalles, and if they favored the removal it was in defiance of such instructions.

I stated that the location was fixed by consultation with these Delegates in 1864. Mr. Henderson says that the "probabilities" are otherwise, as were their successors in 1866 were opposed to that location. Surely Mr Henderson does not deceive himself with such an argument. He says that the circumstances alluded to by him, conclusively to his mind that the people of the Territories and Eastern Oregon did not prefer the location at the Dalles.

I now assert that the people did. The question is not how the people felt about the location in 1866, but was the fact that the representatives of these people in 1864—those who spoke and acted for them—were in favor of the Dalles, a sufficient reason for the Oregon delegation to go for that point. This is the question, and this Mr H does not and will not attempt to controvert. To have attempted to secure the passage of the Mint Bill for Portland in defiance of the opposition of the representatives of the mining Territories would have been a piece of folly only equalled, I respectfully urge, by Mr H's subsequent attempt to remove it to that point, with the knowledge that the House only awaited an opportunity to repeal the law altogether.

A united front in favor of a Mint was what I was seeking for, and Mr Henderson should know the value of harmony among those who represent a common interest, in order to secure success.

Again my friend denies that he told Mr McCulloch that he did not want the appropriation expended at the Dalles. My conclusion was drawn from his own statement in his letter of Oct. 3d, and if he does not admit the fact in substance, then I must confess I am an indifferent interpreter of language. I leave the public to judge between us his own letter to furnish the basis. He says that I do him injustice by insisting that the failure of the Mint is attributable to his course on the matter of the removal. He says that in this he was acting under instructions, and that the failure, if produced by this course—and it certainly was—is the fault not of himself—the servant—but those who gave the instructions. If he had taken this position in the first instance, I should not have consumed your space, or challenged his attention by my reply. But in his first communication he stated that the people of Oregon were indebted to myself and others of the 38th Congress for the loss of the Mint. That was the statement which I felt compelled to refute. Now he admits that the Mint has been lost to the State of Oregon on account of his obedience to Legislative instructions. This is certainly a "change of base." All that I claim is conceded, and the case now stands thus: Mr Henderson charged the delegation in the 38th Congress with causing the failure of the Mint. I reply showing that the failure is the result of his own action in the 39th Congress attempting its removal. He rejoins that that action was in obedience to instructions, and he is therefore not responsible! I care not whether Mr Henderson or the Legislature whose instructions he followed is responsible he and they can settle that between themselves. I only care to relieve myself from the charge of participation or share in it, and this admission makes my vindication complete. I did my duty and whether Mr H did his in following instructions, a literal compliance with which, at the time, was the destruction of the entire purpose of them when passed, and whether they are a sufficient apology for him, is a question of no moment to me. If he can vindicate himself to the satisfaction of his people, he is at perfect liberty to do so as far as I am concerned. And with this I close. Respectfully yours

THE CHIVALRY ESPOUSING THE CAUSE OF MAXIMILIAN.—Here is about the richest thing in its line that can be well got up. The Memphis Post copied from the San Antonio (Texas) Express a statement in reference to the death of Maximilian, written by an ex United States officer. And thus Mr Rogers comes back upon the Post:

COLUMBUS, MISS Sept 21 1867

John Eaton, Jr Editor Memphis Daily Post Memphis, Tenn:—SIR. In glancing over your delectable sheet I read what purports to be the evidence of an army officer etc, who says that he served against the usurper Maximilian, and in speaking of the last hours of that noble martyr to Yankee and French treachery does him the injustice to say he was appalled at the approach of death, that his haggard cheek and wandering eye betokened intense fear—that he was completely unmanned etc. The same was said of the gallant Mejia. You do the princely Miramon the poor justice to say that he met death like a soldier and a man.

Now most wise and potent editor—you caterer to the depraved appetite of free negroes renegade Radicals and Yankee adventurers—I have to say to you, that the whole thing was an infernal lie, and you are no better than the one who originated it, or you would not have copied it. I sir served against a usurper too, for four bloody years and twas my delight to kill your sort during that time. At the surrender, I followed my old leader, Gen Sterling Price, to Mexico, and only left there a short time since. I, sir, am proud to say that I enjoyed the acquaintance of the Emperor Maximilian—tis true in an humble capacity comparatively—and I can also say that he was as gentle, kind an amiable as he was brave and gallant. The idea of a damned wandering Yankee criticising the actions of one who in life would no more have noticed him than he would a dog, is simply ridiculous. As for you, Mr Editor I have to say this, that you had better beware! and not be so lavish in your comments on the dead Emperor, for he has many friends you may little dream of, and you might meet the same fate your friend Hooper did.

Gen. Grant at Home

The Republican Convention of Jo Daviess county, Illinois (the home of Gen. Grant) among the other resolutions passed at its recent session, adopted one nominating Grant for the Presidency next year. The Galena Gazette, in referring to the action of the Convention, says:

"We this day place at the head of the columns of the Gazette the name of Ulysses S. Grant, of Illinois, as a candidate for the office of President of the United States, to be supported at the election to be held in November, 1868. We do this in full accordance with our own sense of its propriety and also for the more public reason that the sturdy Republicans of Jo Daviess county, at their Convention held at Elizabeth on the 5th instant, gave such action their full indorsement. The state of the country, the perils of the times and the character of the man proposed for this high office, are such that no apology is demanded for this decided action. But little more than one year will transpire before the people will be called to the election of a President and Vice President. The vital welfare of the country demands that those offices be filled by single hearted statesmen, pure patriots, unyielding friends of the rights of the people individually and of the highest well being of the collective whole. This general condition is a necessity. Freedom of opinion with all is the rule of action, the Republican party must carry the next election; a union of action is the essential of success. Time is required to perfect this harmony of free, intelligent action. Hence the intelligent action of Jo Daviess this early, that opportunity may be given for a comparison of opinions with others, that [illegible] may be corrected and doubts removed if they exist, that we may all unite in the accomplishment of our most momentous and noble purposes, bound together by the wisdom of an enlightened judgment, and moving in the power of irresistible faith. With feelings more sacred to the country than love of life, we present the name at the head of our columns for the consideration of others, never to be lowered, we trust, except in the humility of gratitude to a higher power than man, as a sign of His approval in enduring victory.

POVERTY IN THE METROPOLIS.—As the world goes, high and low, rich and poor, want [illegible] ance and squalid want sit side by side in all the marts of civilization. Where there is greatest wealth there also is [illegible], as in London, Paris, New York, etc. So, too, do we hear of this wretchedness in San Francisco, where all the wealth of the Pacific coast [illegible]. It seems to be a rule the world over that in order that somebody may be rich, others must be very poor. The San Francisco Call has the following:

"Very few of the citizens of San Francisco have any idea of the misery and poverty that exists in the most [illegible] the world. There are [illegible] the squalid poverty of the New York Five Points [illegible] and there are [illegible] anything ever seen in New York. [illegible] we do not [illegible] the [illegible] by the degraded, and semi-barbarous, and [illegible] filthy Chinese, but to localities where white people [illegible] hundreds of persons here, with [illegible] a dollar and seventy five [illegible] a day, and with this magnificent [illegible] months and [illegible] At twenty cents a [illegible] portion, they [illegible] to pay [illegible] for house [illegible] are do not [illegible] room imaginable for less than four or six [illegible] per month, and where two or three rooms are required, ten or fifteen dollars are demanded, and not a cent less will be taken. If some of our millionaires would [illegible] and [illegible] above gain, they could make themselves [illegible] for themselves, and be beloved by hundreds of grateful hearts, by erecting a number of [illegible] with suitable apartments for small [illegible] and renting them at small rates. But we fear we have none of those who are made of this sort of [illegible]. Here the motto, 'Every one for himself, and the devil take the hindmost,' has obtained a [illegible] which we fear cannot be [illegible]"

CONNECTICUT.—The New York Tribune of October 9th says:

Connecticut held most of her township elections on Monday, and, as most of the towns went as they did last spring, a sort of gains is set up by the Johnson party. The Hartford Courant has returns from thirty-one towns, which mostly show Republican gains on the vote for Governor last April. It adds:

"Of these thirty-one towns, the Copperheads have carried no single town which did not vote for English last spring. The Unionists carry one—Colchester—which at the State election went Copperhead. As compared with last year, the Copperheads have gained the towns of Andover, Killingly, Lyme, New London and Seymour. The Unionists have reduced English's majorities in Glastenbury, Middleton and New London, and Hawley's majorities in Berlin, Darby and New Britain."

RISE IN GOLD.—The Washington Star, speaking of the late rise in gold, says:

But the chief cause is, undoubtedly, the revolutionary attitude lately assumed by the President. The business men of the country interpret his purpose to be to put the nation's public affairs as far as possible into the hands of rebels at the South, and rebels at heart at the North, of men bent on re-establishing the principles of the rebellion in the control of the governmental affairs.

Democratic Constitutional Ideas.

It is a well known leading Democratic idea that every principle of the Constitution is capable of being written out in the affirmative provisions of that instrument. Let us therefore write out what the Democrats say is constitutional law as to rebellion, (when rebellion is attempted by their own party) and see how it will read.

Art. —, Sec. —If a portion of the people shall rise in rebellion against the United States; shall repudiate the Constitution and defy the laws; shall organise an independent government and use State governments to carry on war against the United States; shall make foreign alliances and seek the aid of foreign powers to divide and destroy the Republic; shall seize the property of the United States and assume and exercise the rights of a belligerent power; shall wage war for five years and thereby kill half a million loyal men, destroy an untold of amount of property and inflict a debt of $3,000,000,000 upon the country; shall persist in their attempts to divide the country until they are so utterly defeated that they cannot wring from their section any more means to continue their hostile attacks upon the United States or any further resistance to its authority; shall resort to the most atrocious cruelties and aggravate the common horrors of war by the starvation of prisoners, and the assassination of the men called to the head of the Government, such portion of the people shall not thereby forfeit any rights or privileges as citizen of the United States, nor shall the United States in any manner punish or impose any disqualifications upon such portion of the people for rising in such rebellion.

So much on this point for what the "strict constructionists" believe to be implied in the Constitution. It will not be questioned that this is a fair interpretation of their views on this subject.

It is held by this party that consistently with the Constitution the United States has no power to prescribe qualifications for political rights in the case of those who have been engaged in rebellion. Were this constitutional doctrine written out in the [illegible], it would read something like this:

Art. —, Sec. —. Whenever such a rebellion as is hereinbefore described shall have been quelled by the United States so that armed resistance to the authority thereof is no longer possible, the persons who have carried on such rebellion shall be restored unconditionally to all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizens, and shall be eligible to all offices under the United States, and the Government thereof shall have no power to impose any conditions or political disabilities on them by reason of such rebellion.

On these two planks of so called constitutional principle, absurd as they are, the Democratic party stands; and on these grounds it would settle all the questions growing out of the war. The entire tone of argument which it pursues is identical in substance and meaning with the doctrines set forth in these affirmative propositions.

Hume at Last. Simple the simple has not been [illegible] itself forward for nothing. Nor has his [illegible] Beriah been kind to him without a motive. It has transpired at last why B[illegible] has so greatly favored him. [illegible] was [illegible] so that the [illegible] could take the [illegible] of the "organ" [illegible] the master [illegible] found it necessary to be absent. So Simple is now for the first time trying his hand at [illegible]. It was very unfortunate for [illegible] that he did not withhold his "reply" to [illegible] till the [illegible] at occasion [illegible] have a good opportunity to [illegible] in the editorial columns of the [illegible]—with each number headed by a motto from Pope. From [illegible] appearances it looks as if Simple will yet have to fall back on that "[illegible]" to [illegible] for his editorials. As Beriah cannot be expected to return for several [illegible] yet, the case begins to be a hard one for [illegible]. In his [illegible] issue [illegible] a desperate drive at a leading editorial [illegible] asking that "the historian Hume [illegible] that nations [illegible] to the highest pinnacle of [illegible] and then [illegible] to the lowest depth of infamy." The sagacious conclusion from this remark is that "the theory, if correct, furnishes an additional augury in favor of Democracy." In other words, there is reason to believe that the people will soon reach such a "depth of infamy" as will make it possible for them to vote for the Democratic ticket. We have better [illegible]. There may be [illegible] but we do not believe that Simple's "augury" will be fully verified. Hume was a great philosopher, but it is known that he had little faith in the high destiny of the human race. In [illegible], there are many who will hesitate to believe that our nation is ready to descend from the high [illegible] of glory which it has reached to the low depth of infamy to which Simple thinks it will [illegible] sink. But granting this, we only [illegible] further that [illegible] action in keeping [illegible] about him is explained at last.

A Snake in the Grass. It will be remembered, says the Sacramento Union, that our telegraph [illegible] said not a word of the Vermont [illegible] which showed large Republican gains, but was particular to state all about Maine, which showed Republican losses. So, too, with [illegible] Iowa, where the election was held on the same day with that of Ohio and Pennsylvania. In Iowa the Republicans were victorious by 23,000 and [illegible] was said about this by the wires, but every particular with regard to [illegible] and [illegible] was given. These partial reports naturally arouse suspicion that the agent of the Associated Press at Chicago is in the interest of the Copperheads, and perhaps paid by that party to garble the dispatches. In confirmation of this suspicion, the Virginia (Nev.) Enterprise reproduces the following dispatches, with accompanying comments:

In the Enterprise of Oct. 11th appeared the following [illegible] this [illegible] reporter in relation to the Iowa [illegible]:

"Chicago, Oct. 10.—Returns from Iowa show that the [illegible] is [illegible], but the D[illegible] [illegible] heavy."

Now, in the Overland mail we have a Chicago [illegible], of the same date as the above, which reads as follows:

"Chicago, Oct. 10. The latest advices from Iowa make the Republican majority about 23,000. Clayton county, the home of Col. Merrill, the Republican candidate for Governor, gives him 1,200 majority—a gain of 1,100 over last year. A dispatch from Dubuque, Iowa, says that the Fenians voted the Republican ticket almost to a man, while the Germans almost unanimously bolted on the liquor question."

This last dispatch was not made up for the Pacific States, and, as it appeared in a large number of the Eastern papers simultaneously, is doubtless correct. It is therefore evident that the Associated Press dispatch, claiming heavy Democratic gains in Iowa, was manufactured out of whole cloth.

The first account of the West Virginia election reported great Democratic gains, and of course there was some bragging over the result. But the telegraph now tells us that the great result of these gains is the election by the Democrats of one-eleventh of the members of the Senate, and one-fifth of the members of the Assembly. Members of the Legislature were the only officers voted for. The "reaction" is not very powerful in West Virginia.

New York Constitutional Convention.—This Convention, on the 24th ult., adjourned till the 12th of November. The adjournment was carried by a party vote, the Republicans voting for and the Democrats against the proposition. It is proposed to submit the new Constitution to the people at the Spring elections.

Eastern Journals on the October Elections.

It will be remembered that though the Democrats elected their Supreme Judge in Pennsylvania last month by a few hundred majority, the Republicans obtained a large majority in both branches of the State Legislature. The loss of the Supreme Judge by the Republicans was entirely owing to their mismanagement in Philadelphia. That city which usually gives a large Republican majority was this time carried by the Democrats by a majority of 3,000,—a change sufficient to overcome the Republican majorities in other parts of the State, and to elect Sharswood, the Democratic candidate. The New York Tribune says that a good Republican county ticket in Philadelphia would have defeated him; but this is just what the Republicans did not have. The "Legislative jobbers and railroad robbers" "fixed things" in the Convention, but the people would not support the ticket. The Democrats nominated for the best offices three soldiers with an honorable war record, and under these circumstances carried the city. The Philadelphia Morning Post says the partial Republican defeat in Pennsylvania is owing to "mismanagement by Republican leaders; to the corruption of a Republican Legislature, to the jealousies, and rivalries and indifference of men who should have foreseen the danger and united to remove it. It adds:

"We have watched this campaign, and know too well the want of energy on our part, and the earnestness of our foes. They saw the weak points in our line, and struck boldly and well. In the face of a contest certain to be closer than any known for years, the Republican managers failed to canvass the State with even ordinary vigor, and when they did move, it was too late. The great weight of the contest fell upon the Republican newspapers of the State, and they bore it bravely. But no vigor of journalism can compensate for the want of political organization. We wanted speakers and plenty of the best; but while the State Committee could invite strangers from New Jersey to canvass the State, how many of our ablest orators were neglected? We wanted systematic effort in every county and township, but demanded in vain. If the men who have undertaken to run the Republican party in Pennsylvania had done their duty, this shame would not now dishearten our friends in every State in the Union."

After showing how the partial defeat was brought about, the Post says further:

"Throughout the North and South it will be trumpeted that Pennsylvania has repudiated the policy of Congress and announced her conversion to the theories of Johnson, and the great work of reconstruction will be delayed by our act of yesterday. Yet we desire New York and Georgia equally to remember that Pennsylvania has uttered a lie. This State is now as thoroughly Republican as it was last year, and defeat will but teach the people whom they are henceforth to trust. It will inspire us with new earnestness and resolution to recover by hard work the ground we have miserably lost. A greater campaign than that just ended is before us. At the worst this is but a moral defeat, and leaves the State Government in Republican control. But we are even now entering upon the Presidential canvass, and this will turn out to be but a Cedar Creek victory for the Democracy. It needs but one strong man to rally our broken ranks and hurl them against our foes, as Sheridan dashed his army against Early."

Pennsylvania has seemed to falter before now in her devotion to the great principles of the Union Republican party, but she has faltered only to admonish the party that it must come up to the requirements of the times, adhere to its high ideas and not let the contest degenerate into "policy dodging" or a scramble for spoils. When the true course has been adhered to, Pennsylvania has never disappointed the Republican party, and when it is adhered to, she never will.

The New York Tribune, in commenting on the elections, has these remarks:

Late in the Summer of 1862, Lincoln was persuaded, after long urging and hesitation, to issue his edict of emancipation. The country, it was said, was not prepared for it—that is, the slow coaches were not. And, when the elections that soon followed, showed Democratic gains almost everywhere from East to West—the "conservatives" shouted that abolition and radicalism had received their death-blow. "Look at Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin!" they exclaimed; "their Republican majorities reduced more than half; see Pennsylvania carried by the Democrats, and a United States Senator gained, in spite of Lincoln's large majority; see Ohio, swept clean by 5,000 majority for the Democrats, who carry fourteen Representatives in Congress—a clear gain of seven; see Indiana, Illinois likewise carried—both branches of the Legislature, two-thirds of the Representatives in Congress, and a Democratic United States Senator gained in each; see New Jersey, which gave Lincoln four out of seven of her Electors, now swept by the Democrats by over 14,000 majority, giving another Senator, with four of the five Representatives in Congress; look at New York, where Lincoln had 50,000 majority, and the Union ticket last year 100,000, now electing Seymour Governor by 10,000, and seventeen to fourteen Representatives in Congress—do you not see the handwriting on the wall? Isn't it high time to give up nigger-worship and attend to saving the Union?"

These taunts were bitter, but the exultation that impelled them was transient. Though Fredericksburg and Galveston and the repulse at Vicksburg and Chancellorsville, were still before us, the national cause was not lost, for it was the cause of freedom and humanity. Much less is it lost now, though the false hearts which thought the defeat of Wadsworth and the loss of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, lessons that only the blind could fail to read and heed, still remain to renew their croakings, and have another, though lesser, opportunity.

Referring particularly to the contest in Ohio, the Tribune says:

We shall, of course, have the old cry renewed, "See how Ohio has voted down equal manhood suffrage—hadn't we better drop the nigger and take care of ourselves?" The answer is ready—Ohio on Tuesday gave more votes and a larger proportion of her Republican strength for manhood suffrage than any other State has ever given—more by many thousand than she would ever have given till now. New York, twenty-one years ago, gave but 85,406 votes for equal rights; in 1860 she more than doubled this, giving it 197,503; and still it was heavily beaten, though Lincoln carried the State at that election by 50,000 majority. The next time it will have at least 300,000; and, if beaten by a handful, its enemies will scream and fire guns for their glorious victory. So it will be in other States; while the vital principle of genuine democracy marches on through seeming defeats to its inevitable and conclusive triumph.

The Boston Advertiser in an able article on the "lesson of the elections," remarks:

If the men who are convinced of the importance of the national cause, and who feel the principles at stake in it as vital truths are to turn aside for temporary local issues and forget the national question in the presence of license and excise controversies or matters of Sunday law or street car ethics, they need not expect to see the great question of the century take care of itself. The settlement of that question has been given to their charge, and it is their duty to throw all others aside until this weighty subject has been dealt with and disposed of fully and finally.

It is because this, the duty nearest at hand, has been forgotten in the confidence of the moment, and not because the Republican party is either smaller or less strongly convinced than formerly of the justice of that which it has undertaken, that reverses have now befallen us in the central States of the Union. It is high time, therefore, to take up once more and seriously the great work which is given us to do, and until it is finished to abandon all matters of minor consequence.

The St. Louis Democrat speaks thus of the election in Iowa:

Iowa has done grandly. Considering all the reported disaffection, considering that the temperance question lost the Republicans many votes in some localities, the victory in that State is really something marvelous. At the last election of Governor, two years ago, the majority was 16,023 and the dispatches say that Merrill's majority is now 23,000. Enormous gains are reported in some quarters, and perhaps no candidate ever had a more emphatic endorsement from his neighbors than the magnificent gain of 1,100 in the county in which Colonel Merrill resides. Well done, Iowa! The "great reaction" has not been heard from in that State. In fact, while the East wavers, the sturdy radicalism of the West moves forward without flinching.

What though we should meet with a partial defeat once in five years, can we not endure it? Lessons like these will serve to admonish Republicans of their duty, to remind them that it is necessary to discountenance corrupt men and corrupt measures, to teach them that they must put forward good men only for office, to show them that they must tolerate perfect freedom of thought and action in regard to minor questions and keep only in view the central ideas on which the organization is founded. That we shall triumph in the great fight of next year hardly admits of a doubt; and this result will be helped forward by the partial checks we have lately received. We shall fight better, knowing the real strength of our opponents.

FROM IDAHO.

The World, of Idaho City, gives the following:

We learn that Messrs. Ellis, Devine & Co., principal mine owners on Granite Creek, who purchased the ditch property of Mr. William Lynch a short time ago, for about $20,000, are putting their lines of ditching in excellent order, by fluming and other processes. They have a fine property in the Lynch ditches, and next year's season will surely be a big paying one to them. They richly merit lots of good fortune.

Another clean-up, after a three week's run, was made at the Elkhorn Mill last Saturday, and the very handsome total of 680 ounces was the result, which yielded $9,800 in bars. The Company, weeks ago, paid up every dollar of indebtedness, and have now over $15,000 surplus funds on hand. The mill is kept constantly running, and the rock from the ledge is rich as ever.

J. Marion Moore, Harry Bowman, John Madden and Owen Duffy, came in from the new diggings in Deadwood Basin on Monday. Harry reports about seventy-five at work mining and preparing for winter. The big ditch will be partly finished this Fall, and completed next spring. A good mining season is anticipated next year.

From Mr. Jas. Classen, of the Pioneer Ledge and Mill on Granite Creek, we learn that the first clean-up, two weeks ago, was highly satisfactory—so much so, indeed, that the working force the next day was increased, and the mill is kept in constant operation day and night, and every day in the week. Thirty-five men are employed in the ledge and mill, and the full power of the 25 stamps is ceaselessly applied upon the ore. The machinery runs in a splendid manner—not a jar nor vibration being apparent throughout the whole of the huge but most substantial mill. The Pioneer may be set down as a complete success.

Sheriff Springer of Owyhee, arrived here by stage of Saturday, having in charge four candidates for Penitentiary honors—Smith, eight years, for arson; Bradley, five years, for grand larceny; and two Chinamen, one year each, for robbery. The nice birds are safely caged over on Buena Vista Bar, where they will be carefully handled by Griffeth. We were glad to learn from Mr. Springer that two Indians were shot near Silver City, just before he left. Mr. Springer started on his return home yesterday morning.

A CARD.

Mr. Editor:—You doubtless remember that some time since the Portland Philharmonic Society gave a concert for the benefit of the poor of this city. Soon after the concert, the Society carefully considered the matter, in order to determine the best manner in which to distribute the funds realized therefrom; giving the whole amount to any one benevolent society was very strongly opposed, and giving it by apportionment to the several societies in our city was deemed impracticable, because unable to ascertain the proportionate relief afforded the city poor by the respective societies. Investigation of the subject gave rise to the belief that Portland ought to have a benevolent association representing the whole city, and in which every citizen would feel especially interested, and founded upon such a basis that it would prove to be the almoner of Portland in the matter of supplying the wants and relieving the necessities of its indigent citizens; and a resolution was unanimously passed asking the citizens at large to organize an association of this character, and the sum before mentioned was to be paid to such association when organized. Considerable time has now elapsed without any action in the premises, and this society has decided to place the money where it can be at once used for the purpose designed, and to this end appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. S. J. McCormick, P. C. Schuyler, Jr., and Jacob Mayer, to disburse the said funds, now amounting to four hundred and sixty (460) dollars including interest.

S. J. McCORMICK, President.
Edw. Quackenbush, Secretary Portland Philharmonic Society.

The Committee appointed by the Philharmonic Society to disburse the proceeds of the Concert given by the Society for the benefit of the poor of the city, would state that they are prepared to take cognizance of cases of distress requiring charitable aid, irrespective of creed or condition, and will be thankful to citizens who will bring such cases to the notice of either of the undersigned.

HAVING HAD MY ATTENTION CALLED TO A notice in the "Morning Oregonian" of yesterday, signed by S. D. Smith, denying that he had intended to dispose of the Western Hotel justice to myself renders it necessary for me to say that I had arrangements made to take the Hotel on the 1st day of November, but Mr. Smith, having concluded not to complete the sale, paid me the forfeit agreed upon. I make this statement because I have mentioned to my friends in adjoining towns that I was going into the Hotel on the 1st, and do not wish to be placed in a false position regarding it.

JURISDICTION OF THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS.—The following is a statement of the points decided by Judge [illegible] in the habeas corpus case, S. J. Bennett vs. Susan Bennett, argued last week and decided on Monday:

Held, That this Court has power and it is its duty to inquire into the question of the jurisdiction of the United States District Court, or Judge, to make the order and decree under which the respondent claims.

That when a Court acts without authority, its judgment and orders are to be regarded as nullities—not merely voidable, but simply void.

That as between courts of concurrent powers and occupying the relations of the National and State Courts, the greatest deliberation should be exercised in the examination of controversies relating to jurisdiction; and before the one would pronounce the order or judgment of the other void for want of jurisdiction, the case should be clear of doubt and a plain assumption or usurpation of power.

That the power of the United States District Judge to grant a writ of habeas corpus in a case of this kind, if he have the power, is found in the Constitution of the United States and the 14th section of the Judiciary Act, the second clause of which provides that the Judge of the District Court may "grant writs of habeas corpus, for the purpose of an inquiry into the cause of commitment."

That no law of the United States prescribes the cases in which this writ may be issued by the National Courts, nor the power of the Court over the party brought up by it, nor has the Supreme Court of the United States decided whether the term "commitment," as used in the statute, is to be construed as equivalent to imprisonment in jail under legal process only, or as comprehending every kind of restraint.

That there is room for doubt as to the true construction of the 14th section of the Judiciary Act, in reference to its application to a case of this kind, and in the absence of an authoritative construction by the Supreme Court of the United States, this Court will not undertake to declare the construction put upon it by the United States District Judge in reference to his own jurisdiction, unfounded and erroneous.

That such being the views of the Court regarding the jurisdiction, all inquiry into the merits of the controversy is precluded, and the [child] must be remanded to the re-

[illegible] The following is the order of the Court in the premises:

The Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Multnomah. In vacation after the June term, November 4th, 1867. Sanford J. Bennett vs. Susan Bennett; habeas corpus for custody of infant, Anna Bennett.

This cause comes on to be heard upon the petition, return and replication and exhibit, and after hearing counsel, Willis & Mitchell for the plaintiff and Stout for the respondent, the said respondent and the said child, Anna Bennett, being present in Court, the Court finds that the matters in controversy in this proceeding have been [illegible] upon and determined upon a prior writ of habeas corpus before and by the Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Oregon, in and by an order and decree rendered on the 28th day of October, 1867, at the city of Portland, within said District of Oregon, and that said Judge had competent authority and jurisdiction to determine said matters and make said order and decree;

That in and by said order and decree the respondent, Susan Bennett, was adjudged legally entitled to the custody of the said child, Anna Bennett;

It is therefore ordered and decreed, That the said Anna Bennett be remanded to the custody of the said Susan Bennett, and that the writ herein and the petition be dismissed, and that the plaintiff, Sanford J. Bennett, pay the costs [illegible], and that execution issue therefore, to which rulings and order of the Court the counsel for the plaintiff now here excepts.

ERASMUS D. SHATTUCK, Judge.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Proceedings of yesterday, 5th:

United States vs. Wm. D[illegible]; forfeiture of bond [illegible] at the cost of defendant.

United States vs. H. Hartleib; same proceeding.

United States vs. A. B. Mercer et al; set for trial at [illegible].

The following cases were added to the docket:

United States vs. six bbls and thirty hf bbls ale; forfeiture for want of stamps.

United States vs. six bbls and five hf bbls ale; forfeiture for want of stamps.

Riley & Co. vs. Gully; continued by stipulation till next term.

A LIVELY DAY.—The sailing of the ocean steamer yesterday, and the subsequent bustle of loading the river steamers with freight for her, gave to Couch & Flanders' wharf an unusually lively appearance. The Sierra Nevada went away, drawing nearly twelve feet of water, and the [illegible] took down to the mouth of the river, for her, 250 tons, and the Fannie Troup took over 150 tons. The Sierra Nevada must have over 700 tons freight, nearly all of which is domestic produce. Those best posted on [illegible] say that there is more than enough awaiting shipment to load another ship, immediately. We want, just now, more tonnage.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT VANCOUVER.—The election on Monday, the 4th, the following officers for the city of Vancouver were chosen: For Mayor, A. G. Tripp; Recorder, J. P. [illegible]; Treasurer, Wm. C. Hazard; [illegible], S. R. [illegible]; Marshal, P. G. [illegible]; For Councilmen, J. M. [illegible], J. [illegible], J. L. Rankin, P. Beckley, B. F. [illegible], W. Burgess and M. Wintler. There were two or three other tickets in the field, mostly split, we learn. [illegible] was called "The Citizens Ticket," [illegible] at the mass meeting, last Thursday night. We are not informed as to the majorities.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Sierra Nevada took yesterday, the following freight for San Francisco: 14½ bbls beef, 33 hf bbls do, 12½ bbls pork, 64 hf bbls do, 10 [illegible], 1,143 boxes apples, 13,360 qr sks flour, 32 green hides, 6 sks spuds, 10 rolls and 1 case leather, 269 [illegible], 128 hf bbls dried apples, 344 sks middlings, 642 bags wheat, 1 case lard, 2 gunnies bacon, 1 [illegible], 2 casks ale. A large amount of other freight was taken down to the Sierra Nevada, at the mouth of the Willamette river, of which we were not able to procure a list.

ARRESTS.—The following arrests were made yesterday: Phillip Wyman, charged with an assault and battery upon A. [illegible]. Jacob Bennett charged with larceny by stealing $140 from Robt. Mair. Jas. McCay, assault and battery upon Henry Fleckenstine. Henry Fleckenstine, assault and battery upon Jas. McCay. Frank B[illegible], drunk and disorderly. Henry Fleckenstine is charged, also, with an assault with deadly weapon, upon Jas. McCay. The several parties will have a hearing to-day.

GUS SPRAGUE'S BENEFIT.—To-night, Gus Sprague takes a complimentary benefit at the Willamette Theatre. Among the attractions on the bill, will be a grand trial [illegible] between J. O'Neil and S. W. Adams and several amateurs; Graham's stump speech, by request; "The Rag Picker," by Jo Delevan; [illegible] from the [illegible]," by Delevan and Graham, a splendid piece of [illegible], etc., etc. Don't fail to go and see.

[illegible]—Arrangements have been perfected to play the second game in the match between the [illegible] and the Sherman Clubs, to-day, at Vancouver; provided the weather will permit. The Shermans were [illegible] last evening that the Spartans would be at Vancouver to-day if not a rainy day. This game was postponed once on account of bad weather. The Spartans intend to go overland if they go to-day.

ARRIVED.—The bark Live Yankee which had been several days fast on Swan Island bar, got off yesterday morning and was towed up to this city by the Ranger, and is now [illegible] at the foot of Yamhill street. The Ranger took off some fifty or sixty tons of her freight the night before, and when the tide rose the bark floated off. The [illegible] has on board a large list of goods, of which consignees have had great need, for several days.

GREAT CIRCUS.—Bills were posted up, about the city yesterday, announcing that, "Bartholomew's Great Western Circus is coming." We are not posted on Bartholomew's show; don't know whether it is worth a continental or more or less. Bart. has failed to write us on that point; but we shall see what we shall see. We trust however, that Bart. has'nt got a buffalo.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACT.—The contract to furnish the Quartermaster's department of the army, at Camp Harney, 400,000 pounds of oats or barley, and 400,000 pounds of hay, was awarded yesterday to Mr. Jos. Lockwood, by Col. Eddy, Chief Quartermaster of this Military Department. We are not furnished with the figures at which the contract was awarded.

WHEAT AT WALLA WALLA.—The Statesman of Nov. 1st says: "The grain market continues active, with wheat [illegible] at 60 cents, although the greater part of the sales are made at 50 cents cash, which may be set down as the prevailing price. Many farmers refuse to sell at this figure, and hold for an advance."

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—Arrived per steamer Alert, from Oregon City, yesterday: 40 bbls beef, 8 cases bacon, 132 boxes apples, 62 hf bbls dried fruit, 1,073 qr sks flour, 407 bags wheat, 6 boxes eggs, 15 sks bacon, 58 boxes cider, 3 tons pig iron, 4 bales woolen goods, 4 rolls [illegible], and 401 bags feed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church and Sunday School are making arrangements to hold a Sunday School Festival at Oro Fino Hall, on Monday evening the 11th inst, for the benefit of the Sunday School Library fund.

COAL OIL.—In the course of swinging around our daily circuit, we have lately observed that many of our business houses are substituting coal oil lamps for gas light—on the score of economy, as we suppose.

MEETING OF LADIES TO-DAY.—The ladies of the First Presbyterian church and congregation, of Portland are requested to meet at the basement room of the church at 3 o'clock P. M. to-day.

TREASURE SHIPMENT.—Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped, yesterday, for San Francisco per steamer Sierra Nevada, $100,000 in treasure.

STATE ITEMS.

Major Rhinehart is in Eugene City awaiting his trial on charge of making an illegal arrest.

The course of lectures in the Medical Department of Willamette University began on Monday evening. The introductory lecture was delivered by Dr. Fisk.

A new town has been started on Pine Creek in Wild Horse precinct, in this county. On the 16th inst. the inhabitants assembled and christened it Weston. This town is situated in the heart of a rich agricultural district, and will no doubt become a thriving village. So says the Umatilla Press.

The Umatilla paper says: The engineers now engaged in surveying the Columbia river, have reported a fall of eighteen feet on the Umatilla Rapids, in two and one half miles distance. Six feet of that fall is obtained in four hundred and forty yards. Strangers can see by this the amount of climbing the boats have to do.

The Record has the following: The W. W. Manufacturing Company seem to be doing a very heavy trade this fall. Notwithstanding the large amount of goods being manufactured they can hardly supply the orders constantly received, especially in the article of flannels. Prices range from ten to twenty per cent. lower than one year since.

The Press announces the sudden death of Rev. John Tindall at Umatilla on Friday evening. He had been in poor health for some time past, and on a recent visit to Birch Creek took a severe cold, which terminated fatally. The physician who was called pronounced it to be pulmonary apoplexy. Mr. Tindall was the circuit preacher of the Methodist persuasion for the district of Umatilla, Birch Creek and the Meadows.

The Roseburg paper says: The new building for the Methodist Episcopal Church, of this place is nearly completed. The building is not very large, but is neatly and comfortably arranged, the seats and fixtures inside are furnished in the best style, and the outside of the Church would be an honor to any city. This Church will be dedicated to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 o'clock, A. M. Rev. I. D. Driver will be present at the dedication.

The Eugene Journal says: Mr. George Humphrey received a letter yesterday from Walla Walla, containing an account in regard to Albert Humphrey, by a man just down from Kootenai, the greatest part of which, however, will be found in an article taken from the Walla Walla Statesman. The letter states further that Mr. Humphrey was known to be in possession of two or three watches when he left the mines, which, had it been known during the examination would probably have resulted in holding Hefron and McKay for trial on the charge of murder.

BERMAN BROS. offer to the public at San Francisco prices a large invoice of Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas.

LUCINE LAMPS.—Messrs. Bunnell Bros., of this city, are agents for the lately patented lucine lamps and burning fluid the cheapest, most convenient and the safest light now in use. The lamps are so constructed that they may be carried in any position without spilling oil. No such thing as an explosion of the lamp can take place. They are, therefore, the best hand lamps for bed rooms or for family use that have ever been offered for sale in this State. Call at Bunnell Bros. and procure one.

FINE WORKMANSHIP.—If there is yet a man in this city, who does not believe that he can get just as fine carriage work done in Portland as in any Eastern town, he should at once examine some specimens of work turned out by W. E. Cooper & Co.; for instance, that hack for Bills & Co. or that baggage wagon made for Arrigoni. We ask all doubters to look at them, and if seeing does not result in believing, then there is no use in piling up proof. No finer, stronger or more durable work was ever made in, or brought to, this State than can be got of W. E. Cooper & Co.

GOOD FOR OREGON.—Another source of revenue to the State has been created. We notice several shipments of Hepley's Royal P[illegible] to California, and as soon as the bottles can be manufactured a large order will be filled from New York. The curative properties of this medicine are appreciated abroad as well as at home. See the certificates of several prominent citizens of the State on fourth page.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at night until 2 o'clock A. M., and will serve Oysters and Suppers in every style.

MANHOOD AND YOUTHFUL VIGOR are regained by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous: they give a healthy tone to the system, relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

DR. G. W. COOL

Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on

Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a-half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

Price for upper teeth, $50; full set, upper and lower, $75 00. oc31dtf

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels; Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Home Visions.

I have gone—I cannot always go, you know;
Best 'tis so
Home across the distant ridges of the years,
With my tears;
And the old house, standing still on the old ground,
There I found

In the parlor, in my fancy, I could trace
Father's face;
And my mother, with her old accustomed air,
Sitting there
Whilst beside them brothers, sisters, true and good,
Silent stood

Through the stillness swam the song of summer bird,
And there stirred
On the wall the leaf flecked sunshine; and its glow
Faded slow;
But, from all the loving lips I watched around—
Not a sound.

Then I went up stairs slow entering 'mid their glooms
All the rooms;
And I trod with softened step along the floors,
Op[illegible] doors;
But I never heard a voice or met a soul
In the whole.

Of the breaths that stirred the draperies to and fro
Long ago;
Of the eyes that through the casement used to peep
Out of sleep;
Of the feet that in those chambers used to run—
Now are none.

Of the sunshine pouring downward through the sky,
Blue and high;
Of the leafage and the ancient garden plot,
Brown and hot;
Of the streamlet and the shingle and the tide—
These abide,

But beyond the azure vaulting overhead
Are my dead,
Though their graves were dug apart in many lands,
Joining hands,
They have gathered and are waiting till I come.
That is Home.

The Ebb of the Tide.

[From the St. L[illegible] D[illegible], Oct. 10th.]

John Morgan is in the saddle again. His ride through Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa, has not resulted in the capture of those States, though it has caused loyal men no little discomfort and alarm. But we trust that it will only rouse the spirit of the North, and that when the great battle comes those who fight for the flag will strike harder blows as they remember the rebel raid and the [illegible] rejoicings which followed it.

The election returns, though they do not please, do not disappoint nor surprise us. In spite of all that good leaders can do to teach the necessity of steady and unremitting effort, the Republican voters still feel that they need not spend all their time in fighting the Democratic party. Accordingly, when the main issue is not directly involved, they stay at home or divide upon minor or personal questions, and suffer the enemy to gain fruitless victories. Unwise as this is, it is still not unnatural, for overwhelming victories engender overweening confidence. The sting of occasional defeat and the [illegible] of present peril are [illegible] to the party in its constant effort. Meanwhile the opposition, elated, except in [illegible] moral effect [illegible], both parties are really fruitless.

What have we lost? The Supreme Judge of Pennsylvania is not an [illegible] of any political consequence, and the defeat of Williams, if indeed he is defeated, does not diminish in the least degree the [illegible] power of the [illegible] party. The loss of [illegible] still, as in Philadelphia, is of still less [illegible] only result will be beneficial if it turns out of control of the party the [illegible] by which this defeat has been brought about. The loss of the State ticket in Ohio would have been serious, but we have not lost it. Hayes will be Governor, and Thurman will still [illegible] to life. The [illegible], will be in the [illegible] of Republicans [illegible] the ma[illegible] systems [illegible] to the polls at the next [illegible]. In Iowa, if we have lost [illegible] of local di[illegible] still secure all the fruits of victory. Two [illegible] are to [illegible] one in Ohio and one in [illegible] now is that the [illegible] both. If so, it is a [illegible] view), and that [illegible] is a gain is of practical and [illegible] importance. The [illegible] of Congress [illegible] to fill vacancies. In Pennsylvania a Democrat replaces a Democrat by a greatly increased majority. In Ohio we lose one. The [illegible] of Cary will be [illegible] in Congress, and his vote will swell the [illegible] of noes on all [illegible] measures to fifty [illegible] of forty-[illegible] that is all. If, instead of one [illegible], the Democrats had gained twenty, they might have [illegible] what they can do [illegible]. The defeat of the negro suffrage [illegible] in Ohio, is to be regretted, not because the [illegible] of a Republican vote would [illegible] considerable, but because of the encouragement it gives to the opposition. We have already said that the form of the amendment submitted [illegible] somewhat more opposition to it [illegible] have been excited by the [illegible] proposition [illegible] of the [illegible] new proof of the [illegible] of faithful and well-directed efforts to re[illegible] Democratic [illegible] to the reconstruction [illegible] will be [illegible].

In [illegible] advantage we lose nothing. The [illegible] with all. We regret only the [illegible] of [illegible] Republican ma[illegible] John[illegible]. It may drive him to armed and violent [illegible], we cannot now be sure that he will not force the people who neglected to use their ballots in October, to take down [illegible] in December. At the worst, it seemingly [illegible] those [illegible] of [illegible] which have hitherto been derided as [illegible].

The [illegible] effect of the elections, in the ordi[illegible] the [illegible] other elections, and [illegible] the Presidential contest—will be [illegible] than otherwise. True, it will [illegible] Democrats [illegible] it may stimulate [illegible] policy—a thing [illegible] slept the [illegible]. If so, it is precisely what we [illegible]. But it will [illegible] the Republican party the necessity of earnest and united effort in order to win in 1868. It will kill all side issues, as a sharp frost kills the yellow fever. It will compact the party, rid it of corrupt or unwise leaders; [illegible] distracting theories, and prepare us to fight [illegible] in solid phalanx in the Presidential contest. Without this discipline, wholesome [illegible] not pleasing, we should very likely have been [illegible]. It [illegible] the drill for action.

The [illegible] But it receded even further in 1862, only to gather strength and volume for the flood of 1864. The Democrats then elected [illegible] of Con[illegible] but two from Ohio, [illegible] elected Seymour in New York, and began to apportion the offices as if the Presidential contest had been already won. All their rejoicings to-day are tame compared with the frenzy of triumphant exultation with which they hailed that victory. Emancipation, they boasted, was [illegible] by the people. But at the next election the Emancipator was chosen by unprecedented majorities. To-day, though they have not yet elected State officers nor obtained control of the Legislature in a single Northern State, California excepted, they already claim the Presidential election, and boast that the people will repudiate a reconstruction policy based upon the votes of the loyal blacks. We shall see. As the tide rolls out, the tiny creatures of the shore, whose vision is bounded by the nearest ridge of sand, and whose memory hardly reaches back to yesterday, think that the sea has forever receded. But there will come another tide in due season, governed by laws of which they know nothing, burying them and their trail in the sand wholly out of sight. Let the Republicans do their duty, and then the flood tide of 1868 will roll higher than that of 1864.

A Desperate Lover Cooled Off.—The Toledo Blade of Oct. 2d vouches for the truth of this good story:

On Sunday evening last, a young man, whom, for the sake of convenience, we will call John, went to visit the girl whom he would call his own. The fair one resides near the canal. During the evening the young man, of the name of John, was unable to conceal the wish of his heart, and in tender accents declared his desire that the young lady should consent to be his. He met with a flat refusal. The ardent John still pressed her further, declaring that if she would not accept him he would then and there drown himself in the briny waters of the canal. As this threat did not affect the [illegible] purpose, he proceeded to carry it out. He plunged fearlessly into the murky flood, and waded out until the chilly waters reached over his shoulders. It will be remembered that the evening on which this occurred was none of the warmest. John cried out, shivering with the cold:

"W-w-will you marry me now?"

"No!"

In he plunged again, this time until the water reached his neck, and again he halted before the last plunge.

"W-w-will you marry me now?"

"No!"

Again he went in, this time going fairly under water, so that only the top of his head could be discovered over the surface. But he emerged and staggered out of the canal and shivering worse than ever, spluttered out:

"N-now, w-w-will you m-marry me?"

"No!"

"Well, I d don't care a d d—n whether you'll marry me or not. You won't get me into that canal again?"

Nor did he again essay his fortunes in the uncertain deep. Shivering and chattering with his teeth, he departed in great haste and returned to his home, a sadder, and let us hope, a wiser man

A Cool Husband.—There is one sensible married man in this State. He is a soldier, and was reported to have been killed, but was only a prisoner. He returned home to find that his wife had turned over a new leaf in the marriage service, and that another man occupied his seat in the chimney corner. Did he go to work slaughtering the false wife and new husband? Not much. He walked in and said

"Well, old gal, how is things?"

"Putty good, Bill," said the double-married woman, not taken aback greatly.

"Which do you prefer, the old or the new love?"

She hesitated for an instant, and then said

"I don't like to hurt your feelings, but—but—"

"Oh, spit it out. Don't mind my feelings, nor the other chap's. I won't be angry if you come down a little rough on my vanity. Count on me being amiable. I won't cut up rusty if you should go back on me."

"I'm glad you're so thoughtful, Bill, and I acknowledge that I do like my present husband best; but if anything should happen to him, I know nobody else I would so soon join fortunes with again, as you."

"That's the way to talk. I'll now bid you good bye, hoping that no accident will happen to the other fellow, and that he will live long to enjoy your delightful society. Good day."

And the careless husband traveled off with his knapsack on his back, whistling in cheery tones, "The girl I left behind me."

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the disease for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon:

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been afflicted with a severe cough for several weeks, which had [illegible] a [illegible] feature, for which many physicians have been tried without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest. When Mr. [illegible], of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles. Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked. Its effect was truly miraculous, as it was so sudden; hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that a medicine of such great merit, and I might say [illegible] effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if people once use it they never be without it in the house.
Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H. COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867.

Dear Dr. Henley—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

Dear Dr. Henley—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.
Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN.

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale. But Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it is most of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction
BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which, on several afflicted with the same disease, has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.
I am Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

Dear Dr. Henley—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time, I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody; my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours, truly,
J. H. MORRIL.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!

Read the Certificates!

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

Portland, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wagner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me
VINCENT McCULLOUGH,
Corner of Fifth and College streets.

Tumor Removed!

Portland, August 16th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.
I. BITCHELL

Portland, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. DORE COHN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah—ss

I JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty-three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County, State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business, on horseback, from my home this morning. When I left home I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson's stable, on First street, in this city, when I heard Mr. Rennick's offer to bet that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennicks offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr. Rennick's house and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, spotted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness is the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sensual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fœted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, [illegible] and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be rapidly cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a sealed letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

Any person having a claim against me, and wishing a ticket, can get an order for one by calling on me on board the boat. The person drawing the gold watch can have $100 in gold coin, if preferred.

C. P. FERRY, Broker, R. J. LADD, ex Sheriff AL. ZIEBER, U. S. Marshal, and C. S. SILVER, Merchant, of Portland, are the Committee and Judges to direct the Drawing of Prizes. The Prizes will be drawn before the 1st of August, if all the tickets are taken before that time.

The above liberal offer is made to the traveling public to enable the subscriber to pay his debts, and not with any reference to speculation, as all the property is valued at much less than its cost, (the Steamer alone having cost $11,000), and the price for carrying passengers to Astoria being much less than the usual fare.
Portland May 21, 1867. d2m J. W. KERN

Notice.

OWING TO THE STEAMER U. S. GRANT having lost several regular trips, she will continue to run for a few weeks, to give all ticket holders an opportunity to travel. The tickets stand good for a [illegible] as long as the boat continues to run. A few more tickets yet to be disposed of.
